

End of Year Rollover Enhancement in MyEducation BC

March 5, 2025

A new End of Year Rollover (EOYR) enhancement is now available in the MyEducation BC Production environment. This is related to Pre-Transition fields in a student record.

Recently, modifications were made to the EOYR fields, setting the old Pre-Transition fields to be deprecated. The fields of Retain in Same Grade, Withdraw at EOY and To be Graduated have been relabeled with a zz-prefix and set to Read Only. The Pre-Transition field set and Enterprise related filters/queries have also been relabeled with the zz-prefix:

Field sets:

Filters:

District, school or user created field sets, queries and filters have not been adjusted, but the field names will reflect the deprecated zz-status:

A new field called EOYR Transition has been introduced which includes all three values in a dropdown list. It's conveniently located below the Next School > Name field within a student record. It's also available in some new field sets.

Next School > Name *		Q

There are two new Pre-Transition field sets available in School View > Student top tab: Pre-Transition 2025 (created at the district level) and EOYR – Student Transitions (created at the Enterprise level):

The zz-Pre-Transition field set (created at the Enterprise level) and the SD61 Pre-Transition field set (created at the district level) are still available; however, they do not include the new EOYR Transition field. You can also create your own field set for this purpose, but it's important to ensure it includes the new EOYR Transition field. This is the field that will be used by the EOYR process from this point forward.

Current values that were set using the now deprecated fields will need to be updated to the new EOYR Transition field. These can be migrated easily using the Advance Filter functionality and Mass Update.

Using the zz-Pre-Transition field set, click on the Advanced filter in School View > Student top tab:

Filter on zz-Retain in Same Grade = Yes, search based on: Primary Active Students, then click Search:
